

Practise using the phrase "want someone to do something" as positive, negative sentence and question i When used in a positive statement form the sentence in this way: Person + want + object pronoun (me, you, him, her, us, them) + to infinitive.

In a negative sentence use it in this way: Person + don't/doesn't/didn't + want + object pronoun + to infinitive.

In a question: Do/Does/Did + person + want + object pronoun + to infinitive.

i Positive sentence example: I want him to explain the exercise.

Negative sentence example: He doesn't want me to go the party.

Question example: Did your Mum want you to phone her?

**?

She wants _____ to call her.

- ☐ he
- ☐ to
- ☐ him

**?

Does Tina want them _____?

- ☐ coming
- ☐ to come
- ☐ come

**?

Lisa! Mum wants _____ to listen to her!

- ☐ he
- ☐ she
- ☐ you

**?

Your room is a mess! Dad wants you _____ up your room!

- ☐ to tidy
- ☐ tidy

**?

They want _____ to tell them about our trip to London.

- ☐ us
- ☐ we
- ☐ our

**?

Does Lucy want _____ to help with the dishes?

(Lucy wants her sister to help).

?

Barbara doesn't want _____ to watch TV until late.

(Barbara doesn't want me and you to watch TV).

?

Kelly wants _____ to tell her about yesterday.

- ☐ him
- ☐ his
- ☐ he

?

My aunt wants me _____ my English skills.

- ☐ improve
- ☐ improving
- ☐ to improve

?

We don't want her _____ her keys, so we attached it to her bag.

- ☐ to forgot
- ☐ to forget
- ☐ forget

?

Do you want _____ to do the shopping for you today, I am happy to!

- ☐ her
- ☐ I
- ☐ me

?

Peter and James want _____ to attend their comedy show tomorrow.

Insert the right pronoun for "I" into the gap.

?

His teacher wants _____ to sit the exam on Tuesday.

His teacher wants Tom to sit the exam.

