

Practise negations and questions in the Present Simple

i In the Present Simple we use the word "do" for negations and questions or another auxiliary verb.

Form a negation by putting "don't" or "doesn't" (for: he, she, it) in front of the verb. For example: I don't like cats. OR

She doesn't live in Berlin.

OR another auxiliary verb (have, can, be). Use the correct form for he, she, it! For example: He hasn't any homework today. OR He can't come.

i To form a yes/no question use "do" or "does" in front of the subject (person). For example: Do you like cake? OR Does he have a brother?

If the question requires another auxiliary verb use: Is/isn't or Are/aren't (for "you", "we", "they"), haven't/ hasn't, can/can't. For example: Isn't she nice? OR Are they tall?
