

Practise the present perfect with us!

i When do you use the present perfect?

When you want to talk about events in the past that are unfinished or are still happening now. It is also used to describe events that happened at undefined points in time or very recently.

Signal words: "since, for, ever, never, this month/week, today, just, yet, already, recently" i How to form the present perfect?

Use have/has with the past participle of the verb. The past participle (3rd form of the verb) is usually formed by adding "ed" to the end of the verb: watch - watched. But some verbs are irregular, you need to learn these by heart.

For example: "He has played tennis for five years". OR "I haven't bought Mum's birthday cake yet".
