

Practise using the will future with us!

i When do you use it?

To talk about an event in the future.

How do you use it?

Put "will" in front of the infinitive form of the verb.

For example: I will play tennis tomorrow. OR use the contracted form: She'll phone next week.

Negations: Put "not" in between will and the verb. I will not come tomorrow. OR use "won't" - I won't come tomorrow.

Questions: Will she arrive by six?

?

My teacher _____ give us no homework this week.

- will
- wills
- won't

?

_____ go to the sports stadium on Sunday, do you want to come?

- will
- I'll
- I'lll

?

We _____ be able to come to your party on Saturday, sorry!

- wone't
- willn't
- won't

?

_____ travel to Australia to visit my aunt and uncle in the holidays.

- She ll
- Sh'll
- She'll

?

_____ you do me a favour, please?

- Will
- Wills
- Wil

?

_____ learn Spanish as a second foreign language next year.

- Well
- We'll
- W'll

?

_____ loose that game, for sure!

- H'll
- Will
- He'll

?

_____ it rain on the weekend?

- Wil
- Wills
- Will

?

Ben _____ buy his new guitar on Saturday. He is so happy!

?

No, she _____ play next summer because of her injury.

Use a negation!

?

_____ your sister play at the national tournament next summer?

?

I _____ be able to attend training this evening, sorry.

?

Our exchange students, Tina and Lara, _____ arrive next month.

?

It's a pity but they _____ be able to stay for a whole month after all, only for two weeks.

