

Not sure which one to use? Practise one/ones with us!

i When you don't want to repeat a noun in your sentence and want to replace it you need to use: one (for only one thing) or ones (for more than one thing).

For example: All the shirts are nice, but I prefer the red one.

I found some interesting new books!

Which ones?

In some sentences signal words can help you:

Signal word for one: another, the, a/an

Signal word for ones: some, these/those

?

This jumper is too small for me, I need a new _____.

- ones
- one

?

Oh no, these strawberries are bad. Let's get some new _____!

- ones
- one

?

Which car do you prefer? - The red _____.

- ones
- one

?

My plan is not working. I need to think of another _____.

- one
- ones

?

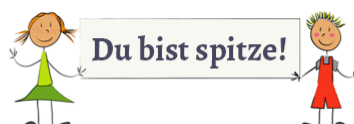

Please put some apples in the shopping cart. - Which _____?

- one
- ones

?

The black shirt suits you better than the brown _____!

- ones
- one

Can I have the blue sweets please? I don't like the red _____.

- ones
- one

Look, this is my new school bag! - Oh, didn't you like the old _____?

- one
- ones

Can I please buy another _____ of those muffins? They are so nice!

- one
- ones

I don't know what game to play next. - Oh, I found some interesting _____ here, have a look!

- ones
- one

I like both sneakers. - Which _____ are cheaper?

- ones
- one

I don't like that song, please play another _____!

- ones
- one

I really don't know which one to choose! - I would take the harder _____!

- one
- ones

Can you lend me some DVDs? - Yes sure, which _____ would you like?

- ones
- one