

Practise using sentences with the words "why" and "because"

_____ are you wet? - Because it is raining outside!

- Because
- What
- Why

But why are you so happy anyway? - _____ we got a new puppy today and I just went for a walk with it!

- Why
- Because
- For

_____ is your Dad not at home? - Because he needed to do some shopping for our new puppy.

- For
- Why

_____ did you want a puppy? - Because I love going for walks with a dog and cuddle and train it.

- What
- Why
- For

Why can you not come on Saturday? - _____ I am going away to a dog training day with my family.

- Before
- Because
- Why

Why do you think Louis is sad? - _____ his dog ran away.

- Where
- Why
- Because

_____ did the dog run away? - Because Ben forgot to close the garden gate.

- What
- Why

?

Why is Ben putting up posters everywhere? - _____ he hopes when his dog is found, they will call the number on the poster.

- That
- What
- Because

?

Why are you in such a good mood? _____ Ben's dog was found!

- Because
- Between
- Why

?

_____ is Ben not taking his dog for a walk? Because he needs to wash him first, he got home dirty.

- Why
- Because
- Before

?

Why are you covered in flour? - _____ I am baking a cake for my Mum.

- Before
- Because

?

_____ are you baking her a cake? - Because it is her birthday tomorrow!

- Because
- Before
- Why

?

But _____ doesn't your father make the cake? - Because he works long hours.

- why
- when
- what

?

Why didn't you bring any breakfast to school? - _____ we had my Mum's birthday cake for breakfast and now I'm full!

- What
- Because